We are currently looking for a Retail Merchandiser who will be responsible for completing projects typically consisting of sets, resets, cut-ins, display installations, surveys & audits and other projects that meet our clients' needs in big box retail stores.

This is an excellent opportunity for someone that likes building relationships with store staff and wants to increase overall sales and market share for manufacturers.

As a Premium merchandiser, you'll join an established and fast growing, values-based company representing hundreds of brands across retail locations.

Growing sales for Premium clients is the name of the game, and you'll do it by executing retail merchandising activities.

What's in it for you?

- You make your own schedule. Yes, you read that right.
- You'll merchandise brands you know and love in a variety of categories.
- You'll be fully trained and supported by true retail experts.
- Merchandising is the future. It's an exciting career path with a lot of growth potential.
